

CH-10023 Cambridgeshire

A late 16th century watermill with a later Georgian addition country house and with 20 acres of land, including multiple streams, rivers and bridges. The interior features dark walls, an eclectic mix of decor and characterful exposed beams.

